8. SAFETY

It is acknowledged that the media play an important role in events, and each member of the working media must be permitted to carry out his or her work in the best possible conditions.

However, the media are not exempt from having to respect general safety rules. In general, this should not interfere with their ability to perform their duties. However, if a choice has to be made between carrying out their work and being exposed to an unacceptable level of risk, safety must always take precedence.

As far as safety-related matters are concerned, the media will be divided into two groups:

- TV, Cinemas and Photo
- Journalists, radio reporters and other media

Each group will be identified as follows:

- Numbered tabards issued by the Rallye Breslau International Association
- Media passes, with a number and the name of the publication
- The official Rallye Breslau International Association Media Crew will hold permanent media passes.

Only accredited media members wearing the official tabards will be permitted in those areas on the route of the special stages to which spectators are not normally admitted.

If, in the opinion of a marshal on site a wearer of a tabard is located in an area of danger, he or she will be asked to move to a safe location. If this instruction is ignored, the official in charge will immediately inform the Press Manager and Press Officer and will note this in his report. Not obeying the instructions of the marshals / senior officials will result in the immediate revoke of the media accreditation.
